

The quick – easy to follow- recipe for a truly special Great Irish Bake – for Temple Street.

Pick the right ingredients.

Pick a day. This year's Great Irish Bake is on April 5th but you can host your event any time. Just try to pick a date that allows as many people to come as possible.

Pick a time. You can host your event at any time. But if you're not sure what time to pick, lunch time and coffee breaks work really well.

Advertise. Advertise your event on social media and using the poster we have provided. And remember, word of mouth is the best advertising of all, so tell everyone about your Great Irish Bake event.

Invite everyone. The more people you invite the more fun you will have – and the more vital funds you'll help to raise for sick children in Temple Street.

Preparation is key

Count your ingredients. If you are baking, check the night before that you have enough ingredients. You don't want to be rushing out looking for vanilla essence at the last minute!

Follow your recipes. Most bakes fail because people guess with amounts and levels.

Mix it all together

Get some bakers to join. Baking is always great fun. But it's even better when you do it together. So, get some friends to roll up their sleeves and help you in the kitchen.

Have fun. As if your wonderful cakes weren't enough, you can also spice up your day with some games, or challenges. You'll find your special Great Irish Bake Score Cards and Judges Paddles available to download at www.templestreet.ie/greatirishbake.ie

Help save lives

Remember to send back your donations. Sick children in Temple Street urgently need your help so please send back your donations as soon as you can.
